Recovery FOR LIFE
Gala

Dear Friends of Maryville,

Welcome to our Recovery for Life Gala! With your support, Maryville's services have grown from the Williamstown based Maryville Convalescent Center serving 20 alcoholic men in 1949 to one of the largest substance use and co-occurring disorders treatment and recovery supports organizations in New Jersey today. With facilities located throughout our southern region, and our partnerships and collaborations for treatment and research with medical and educational centers, physician groups and peer providers throughout the state, Maryville now serves about 7,000 admissions annually. Your generous donations this evening will allow Maryville to continue providing excellence in care for all those who come to us, regardless of their financial status. We thank you for your participation this evening, your comradery, and your support as we continue to fight some of our nation's most serious public health problems.

Sincerely yours,

Kendria McWilliams

Honoree

Roland Traynor

Roland Traynor, a pillar of Camden County's entertainment and recovery community, has spent half a century dedicated to enriching the lives of its residents.

After time in the U.S. Army, Roland started a career with the Camden County Parks Department in 1972 as a laborer. He exhibited an unwavering commitment to his community's well-being. His tireless work ethic and passion for creating experiences propelled him into impactful roles within the department, eventually serving as the architect of the county's free summer concert series, now held at the Camden Waterfront, Cooper River Park and the Haddon Lake Park Dell in Haddon Heights.

Upon his retirement in 2011, Roland's passion for community engagement remained strong as he continued on as a consultant for Camden County's annual concert series. His efforts have brought internationally renowned acts to South Jersey including Arrested Development, Hanson, David Crosby, Kenny G, Michael McDonald, Joan Jett, Cheap Trick, WAR, Eddie Money, Sheila E., Boz Scaggs, UB40, the O'Jays and many more.

Roland Traynor's legacy extends beyond mere entertainment; it embodies a deep-rooted sense of community spirit. His efforts not only brought people together but also fostered a sense of pride and unity among Camden County's diverse communities. In recognition of his dedication and contributions, the Wiggins Waterfront Stage was renamed the Roland Traynor River Stage in July 2023. It stands as a testament to his enduring impact on the cultural landscape of the county.

When he's not changing the music scene in Camden County, Roland spends quality time with his wife, Bonnie and children at the Jersey shore. His grandchildren, Alexis, Caitlin, Matthew, Kyle, Nicholas, Colin, Mackenzie, Teagan and great grandchild Raelyn, undoubtedly look up to him as a role model, inspired by his legacy of service and community devotion.

Roland is a past Maryville board member and has remained a steadfast donor and supporter for more than 30 years. His journey is a testament to the power of passion and dedication. His relentless commitment to making Camden County a vibrant and inclusive place for all will resonate for generations to come.

Honoree

Jerry Warner

Jerry is the oldest of ten children of a proud military family and has resided on posts in Texas, Michigan, and Alaska. He was one of six graduates of the first Catholic High School in Fairbanks, Alaska and graduated with a BS Degree from Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington.

He served as a Commissioned Regular US Army Officer in Germany and as a commanding officer in Viet Nam. After more than fifty years in various senior and executive management roles in three major property and casualty insurance companies, in California, Illinois, New York and New Jersey, Jerry retired in February 2016 as the President of the New Jersey Insurance Underwriting Association.

Jerry has been involved in extensive volunteer services, most notably, The Knights of Columbus, and as an Eucharistic Minister for the past 37 years, making weekly visits to nursing and private home residents who are unable to attend church activities at his home parish, St. Andrew the Apostle.

Jerry joined the Maryville Board of Directors in the fall of 2015 and has served as the Chair of the Budget and Finance Committee, as well as the President of the Board for the past five years. He is also very active in various 12 Step support groups and an ardent supporter of sober living activities.

Honoree

Brett Wiltsey, Esq.

Brett Wiltsey is a licensed attorney in the State of New Jersey and partner at Obermayer Rebmann Maxwell & Hippel, LLP. He received his Bachelor's degree from Widener University and his Juris Doctor degree from Seton Hall School of Law. Brett concentrates his practice in general corporate, business transactions, real estate, and financial matters. He serves as General Counsel to growing and emerging companies, represents financial institutions, and conducts real estate, land use, and government representations.

Brett enjoys solving problems, which is what motivated him to become a lawyer. He has repeatedly been named a "Top Attorney" by SJ Magazine. Brett serves as General Counsel and a Board of Trustees Member for the Southern New Jersey Development Council as well as Chairman for the Collingswood Democratic Committee. For Camden County College, Brett holds the positions of Trustee, Chief Business Affairs Committee and Treasurer to the Board. He also serves as Advisory Committee Member for Widener University School of Business Administration.

As a former collegiate athlete in basketball and baseball, Brett likes to stay active and plays golf with friends and clients. He also coaches his children's youth sports teams. Brett enjoys spending time with his family and reading non-fiction analyses of World War II, using them as opportunities to understand and improve modern-day decision-making.

A founding member of Maryville's Leadership Council as well as a donor, Brett has been actively involved since 2017 because Maryville "provides hope to so many people in need of support, love and encouragement."

Our Speaker

Guest Speaker: Zac Clark

Zac Clark is a mental health, wellness, and addiction recovery advocate, motivational speaker, philanthropist, and business executive who founded and serves as CEO of Release Recovery: a full-service substance use disorder and mental health organization – with multiple facilities throughout New York – that offers transitional living, interventions, case management, and other essential family and recovery support services. Zac is also the founding board member of Release Recovery Foundation, a nonprofit whose mission is to remove financial barriers to treatment for those who can't afford it – specifically those in underserved communities through DEI, LGBTQIA+, and women's scholarships. The foundation also works to build community to break the stigma around addiction and mental health.

Zac serves on the board of trustees of Caron Treatment Centers, an internationally renowned organization dedicated to addiction and behavioral healthcare and treatment – and where Zac began his own recovery journey 12 years ago.

In 2020, Zac came to widespread acclaim by openly addressing his addiction and recovery on ABC's "The Bachelorette." He uses his platform to spread hope and raise awareness – especially among young people – about the crucial mental health and addiction issues that plague our country today.

Zac has partnered with global brands, including Reebok, Rhone, and Poland Spring. He grew up in Haddonfield, NJ, is a die-hard Philadelphia sports fan and sneakerhead, played college baseball, and has seen his favorite band Pearl Jam play more than 30 times. He's finished 12 marathons, as well as completed the coveted Goggins Challenge – raising nearly two million dollars in the process on behalf of Release Recovery Foundation and Caron Foundation. He lives in New York City.

William & Janet Slaven in association with Joseph's House are proud to support the Maryville Addiction Treatment Center.

Over the last few years Joseph's House Homeless Shelter has partnered with Maryville to assist many of our guests with addiction treatment.

About Joseph's House

History:

Joseph's House of Camden (JHOC) was founded in 2010 to provide practical help and hope to the homeless community in South Jersey. Initially, from 2011 to 2013, JHOC operated only during winter months, offering food and shelter. The organization began year-round operations in 2014 incorporating social services that address the root causes of homelessness. Even during the pandemic, JHOC never missed a day/night of service continuously dedicated to its mission of individually supporting guests in taking control of their lives.

Program:

Joseph's House of Camden is an organization that focuses on providing comprehensive supportive services to reduce homelessness in Southern New Jersey. We prioritize helping the chronically homeless, who often suffer from poor physical health, mental health, and substance abuse.

- Our program offers overnight shelter, three meals, and access to personal hygiene products, laundry, and shower facilities.
- We welcome guests as they are and have no entry barriers. They can stay as long as they need, as long as they follow safety rules.
- Our Assessment and Intake Supervisor screens the Program guests, who then collaborate with our team of social workers and case managers to navigate their needs.

2023 highlights:

- In the past year, we served 864 unique individuals, providing over 37,002 services.
- We provided 9,238 case management sessions, resulting in 1,230 targeted outcomes.
- Among those outcomes, 248 received medical treatment & obtained state health insurance.
- 116 guests received identification, birth certificates, and social security.
- 131 guests obtained housing, 68 received legal aid, 27 received a referral from the Camden County Board of Social Services,
- 346 guests received addiction treatment, 97 received employment assistance, 8 were connected to veteran services, and 31 were able to use the communications lifeline.
- We are open every day of the year, providing our guests with the support and resources they need to exit homelessness.
